69 Alleluia 7

(Hum under psalm leader during each verse.)

PSALM

When the Lord delivered us from bondage, it seemed like a dream. Refrain

Then our mouth filled with laughter,
on our lips there were songs. Refrain

The heathens themselves said: "What marvels the Lord worked for them!" Refrain

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad. Refrain

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land. Refrain.

Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap. Refrain.

They go out, they go out, full of tears,
carry seed for the sowing; Refrain.

They come back, they come back, full of song,
carrying their sheaves. Refrain.

-from Psalm 116

READING

Paul wrote: If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant

Remaining in silence in God's presence, open to the Holy Spirit, is already prayer.

That we may learn to share more fairly the resources of our planet among all,
Lord, we pray. Hear our prayer.

That a sense of wonder at the beauty of creation may remain alive in us,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and forever. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER

Jesus our peace, you never abandon us. And the Holy Spirit always opens a way forward, the way which consist in casting ourselves into God as into the depths. And astonishment arises: these depths are not an abyss of darkness; they are God-fathomless depths of compassion and innocence. Amen.

About Taizé: Taizé is a tiny village hidden away in the hills of Burgundy, in the eastern part of France, not far from the town of Cluny. Since 1940, it has been the home of an ecumenical community of brothers whose prayer, three times each day, is at the center of their life. Today, Taizé is a place to which visitors of all ages and backgrounds come on pilgrimage, to participate in international meetings of prayer and reflection.

Taizé's vocation is to strive for communion among all. From its beginning, the community has worked for reconciliation among Christians split apart into different denominations. But the brothers do not view reconciliation among Christians as the end in itself; it concerns all humanity, since it makes the Church a place of communion for all.

Singing is one of the most essential elements of Taizé worship. Short chants, repeated again and again, give it a meditative character. Using just a few words, they express a basic reality of faith, quickly grasped by the mind. As the words are sung over many times, this reality gradually penetrates the whole being. Meditative singing thus becomes a way of listening to God. It allows everyone to take part in a time of prayer together and to remain together in attentive waiting on God, without having to fix the length of time too exactly.
