* CALL TO WORSHIP

By this we have known the presence of the Lord:
in the rising of the sun, in the smile of another's face,
in the touch of a hand or the sound of a laugh,
in the scent of a flower holding the promise of spring.

By this we have known the power of the Lord:
in the healing of hurts, in the forgiveness of sin,
in the giving of gifts beyond all expectation,
in the shower of love that comes from God's Son.

Let us give thanks to the Lord with all of our heart!

Let us worship our God, whose presence and power endures forever!

From the organ collection A Quaker Reader, based on various texts of famous Quakers, the voluntary is inspired by the dying words of of English Quaker leader and outspoken critic of the slave trade, James Naylor.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

We know who you are, O Christ;
you are the one who silences demons and casts out evil spirits;
you are the one who creates new life out of utter chaos.
We know who you are, O Christ.
Forgive us, we pray, when we act otherwise.
In your name we pray....

(Time for silent reflection and prayer)

here's my heart; O take and seal it; seal it for thy courts above.

Jesus prays for us and wants us to pray for others — for the whole church and for the world that God so loves. During the Prayers of the People, we pray especially for people who are sick, hungry, lonely, or poor; for the cities and neighborhoods where we live; for people and leaders in other countries; for peace and fairness for all people; for all God’s creatures; for clean air, water, and soil; and for the work of the whole church to show and tell the good news of Jesus.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME VISITORS: We are glad you found your way to First Presbyterian Church of Cumberland. For more information about opportunities to worship, learn and serve with us, we encourage you to visit the table outside the church office. You can also learn more about us at www.fpc-cumberland.org and www.facebook.com/First.Pres.Cumberland. Childcare is provided in the nursery. An usher will be glad to direct you there.

CHILDREN IN WORSHIP: While we do provide a nursery for young children, we also welcome you to bring your child with you to worship. We have "worship bags" in the back of the sanctuary that include materials for drawing and coloring, as well as Bible stories and Bible word-find games. After the Time for Young Disciples, children may go to the nursery for a Bible lesson or remain in the sanctuary. Our "Young Children in Worship" pew card contains information about why young children should be encouraged to come to worship and how parents and others can engage them more fully in worship.

THE PRAY-GROUND is a special space in the sanctuary for our youngest children and their families. All families are welcome to come and sit in the right front pews with their children seated on the rug. This front row seat will allow God's youngest children to participate in the service in a place where they can see and hear best. There will be activities provided so that their little hands are kept busy while participating in worship. "Jesus said to them, 'Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it'" (Mark 10:14-15).

FRIENDSHIP PADS: Please locate and sign the red pad in your pew, tear off the sheet and place it in the collection plate during the offering. This important practice allows us to be mindful of new folks and long-time members as well, and is a good way to learn (or remember) the names of those with whom you are seated. If you are visitor, please fill out the "Welcome to First Presbyterian Church" card in the pew rack and put it in the offering plate when it comes by during the service.

PERSONAL LISTENING DEVICES: (amplifiers) are available in the back of the church for use during worship. Please see an usher for assistance.

WORSHIP BROADCASTS ON YOUTUBE: To view worship services live or to view taped worship services, go to www.youtube.com (First Presbyterian Church of Cumberland Live Stream) or go to our website <http://www.fpc-cumberland.org/> and click on "click here to view our worship service" located at the bottom of the home page.

SANCTUARY FLOWERS: Please contact Michael Levitas or the church office if you would like to sponsor flowers. You may specify live or silk flowers. Silk flower money will be directed to the Special Ministries Fund.

Lent & Holy Week at FPC

February 14, 2018
7:00PM in the front of the Sanctuary

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the Season of Lent, a 40-day spiritual journey with Jesus toward the cross and the death that ultimately brings resurrection life. It is a time to reflect on who we are and whose we are.

As part of the service, we will offer the imposition of ashes as a physical reminder of our mortality and sin and an assurance of God's forgiveness and salvation. Ashes have been used in Christian churches to mark the beginning of Lent since at least the 10th century. In Scripture, ashes are described as a symbol of purification and repentance. Communion will also be served. Our service will be reflective and informal. Join us as we begin the holiest season of the year.

Way of Life: A Lenten Study based on The Great Spiritual Migration by Brian D. McLaren

To be human is to move. To be human is to change. Today, Christianity is in need of change. More specifically, argues McLaren, Christianity is in need of a migration.

Join friends from Emmanuel Episcopal and St. Paul's Lutheran on Thursdays at 6:00PM in the Fellowship Hall for a simple supper, followed by study and conversation. To order the participant study guide, please contact Brittany Jackson by February 5. They are recommended by not required for participation in the study. Cost is $10.
