 CALL TO WORSHIP

Listen! God is welcoming us to this time of worship.
No matter your age, sex, skin color, or social status – all are welcome.
This is a place where we all belong; this is a time when we are all acceptable.
The maker of all seeks our common good. The God of mercy calls us to be merciful.
We are not judges over others, but are called instead to love our neighbors as ourselves.
Come to sing praises and to put your trust in God.
Come to prepare yourself to serve in Christ's name.
We bring all our needs to God who is our hope
in order that we may share that hope with others.
Let us worship God...

The Call to Worship reminds us that worship begins with God, who takes the initiative in calling us together. We response by praising God.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, we confess that our good intentions have gone astray. We tend to favor those who are like us and give honor to those we deem important. We often ignore the poor, write off those with whom we disagree, and excuse our own self-serving behaviors. We find it easier to give advice than to do good. We would rather point fingers at others who are unfair than give up our own advantages in life. Have mercy upon us O God. Forgive us, renew us, and grant us a depth of faith that will make a difference in our and in our world, through Jesus Christ our Lord...

(Silence for personal prayer and reflection.)

God promises always to love and forgive us — even when don't follow God's way, or when we do things that hurt others. Everyone makes mistakes; that is why we confess our sin together. When we confess our sin, we say that we are sorry for these things, and we ask God to forgive us and help us live new lives.

OPEN YOUR EARS, O FAITHFUL PEOPLE

“HASIDIC MELODY”

MEMBERS OF THE SANCTUARY CHOIR

Open your ears, O faithful people; open your ears and hear God’s word.
Open your hearts, O royal priesthood; God has come to you.

God has spoken to the people, hallelujah!
 God has spoken words of wisdom, hallelujah!
 God has spoken to the people, hallelujah!
 God has spoken words of wisdom, hallelujah!

Passing the peace is a tradition rooted in Scripture that embodies our identity as peacemakers and trains our hearts, hands, and tongues in the ways of peace. It is not an interruption of the service for social conversation but an integral part of the service where we greet one another as reconciled people.

GOD IS SO GOOD

“GOD IS SO GOOD”

God is so good; God is so good;
 God is so good; God’s so good to me.
 God cares for all; God cares for all;
 God cares for all; God’s so good to us.

Many of us give our monetary offering weekly. Many of us give our offering monthly or even yearly. This morning, even if you are not putting your monetary offering in the plate today, please touch the inside of the plate when it goes by. This will help us remember that the gift we are offering is actually ourselves.

BEARING AND FOLLOWING THE WORD INTO THE WORLD

Drawn from Scripture, the Charge gives marching orders for the people of God. It exhorts us to do certain things, with the attendant promise of God's support as we undertake to do them. A word of Blessing or Benediction always accompanies it.

Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love.

Please join in reading or singing those parts of the service printed in bold.
